HAVA FINANCIAL REPORT
EXPENDITURE BY PROGRAM
TITLE 1 SEC. 101 (b)

ORIGINAL

The following report details funding that was utilized in the Virgin Islands to meet HAVA requirements, and which were consistent with the State Plan developed by the territory:

Section (A)	EXPENDITURE $155,648
Funds in this category were utilized to meet the requirements of Title 111: Under contractual services technicians were hired to ensure that ballots were developed to allow voters to verify their selection, to make changes before a ballot is cast, and to ensure that no more than the number of available seats for a specific seat can be selected. Full public testing was conducted on Voting Machines. Machines were equipped with full curtains to provide privacy. Provisional Voting was instituted at all polling places. Phase I of a Computerized Statewide Voter Registration System was implemented with funding encumbered through contractual services to finalize the project.
(B)	$ 99,518
In order to improve the overall administration of elections two individuals were employed. One to administratively work on HAVA implementation and one to assist in election processes. Additionally our General Funds were reimbursed to cover time spent on conversion of current Computerized Registration system to a new system to encompass HAVA requirements.
(C)	$ 25,864
Funds used under this program basically educated voters on voting procedures and voting rights. Large posters were displayed in all polling places, in both English and Spanish. Newspaper and radio ads and articles were used to provide a wide range of voter information. Through contractual services a comprehensive Voter Information Program has started and will continue with encumbered funds.
(D)	$ 2,590
Training was conducted for elected Boards in all districts and for lead election workers, with particular emphasis on HAVA implementation and Provisional Voting. Additional training, particularly to sensitize election workers to the needs of individuals with disabilities, became a part of a
